What is the expectation of attendance?

Gyro has no minimum required attendance. We are very flexible! Come as often as you enjoy and are able. Gyro is all about fun and friendship. Just because we meet bi-weekly does not mean you need to attend every meeting. We have some members who attend only once per month. We also have some snowbird members who are away for several months at a time.

What level of commitment is expected?

You can have as much or as little involvement as you desire. Some members are interested in leadership or volunteer opportunities. These are strictly voluntary; there is no pressure whatsoever. Some members enjoy traveling to other club's installations and partaking in the international friendship of the organization. This too is optional.

Aside from the weekly meetings, what are some optional events I could participate in? What about my wife or lady friend?

Our club has a large variety of optional events that may be of interest. Most of our meetings are mixed events where our wives or girlfriends are invited to attend.
